Two friends who falsely claimed they were raped were jailed yesterday because the suspect had photos of them all having a threesome.

Jennifer France, 24, and Kelly Weston, a 27-year-old mother, posed for saucy snaps on Enes Gozalan's bed after meeting him in a pub.

A court heard they later made the false allegations because both had long-term boyfriends and were ashamed of what they had done.

Their 30-year-old victim was arrested and kept in custody for 18 hours because the pair claimed they had been raped multiple times.

As soon as Mr Gozalan was arrested, he produced his mobile phone and told officers he had photos to prove his innocence.

He later told detectives: 'The photographs show the girls were having a good time. I do not understand why they would make up something so nasty.'

Carolyn Branford-Wood, prosecuting, told Southampton Crown Court that Weston attended a police station two days after the alleged attack.

'Miss Weston had been out with her brother's girlfriend, Miss France, for a family meal,' she said. 'During the course of the evening they met two Turkish men. The four of them had been in a pub together and left together.

'Miss Weston went on to claim that she had been raped by one of these men at his home.

'I have faced threats of attack following the allegations and have had sleepless nights. I hope I never see them again because they have ruined my life.'

'The following day Miss France also informed the police that she too had been raped by the same man.'

But she said Mr Gozalan's phone showed 'not only him engaged in sexual activity, but the two women too'.

He was released on bail following his arrest on October 18 last year and later informed no further action would be taken.

Weston and France were arrested in January on suspicion of perverting the course of justice.

In two interviews, Weston maintained she had been raped but, in a third, she broke down when she was shown the photographs.

Miss Branford-Wood added: 'She said she had gone to Mr Gozalan's house and had consensual sexual activity with both him and Miss France. In police interview Miss France said she had made up the account to cover up the fact she had had sex with someone who was not her boyfriend.'

In a statement read to the court Mr Gozalan said the incident had ruined his life.

He added: 'I was shocked when I was arrested for rape. My first thought was that I was pleased I kept the photographs, which showed the girls were having a good time.'

'I have faced threats of attack following the allegations and have had sleepless nights.'

France, of Southampton, and Weston, of nearby Eastleigh, each admitted a count of perverting justice. They were jailed for 20 months.

The court heard Weston accepted she had done wrong and feared going to jail because she wanted to look after her two children.

Natalie Wood, defending France, said she had felt guilty about having sex with Mr Gozalan because she too had a boyfriend.

Passing sentence, Judge Peter Ralls QC told the pair: 'The allegations you have made are of the most serious kind and were entirely false.'

'Although there had been sexual activity between you and Mr Gozalan and between you together, there was no force and it was consensual.

'By supporting one another with these wicked allegations, you have aggravated matters. This man was at serious risk of being imprisoned for a long period of time, perhaps ten years, perhaps indeterminately.'

If he had not had the photos , 2 against one and he would have got 10 years because the jury would believe 2 witnesses. These women should be jailed for 10 years. This is the 2nd case I have read in the Daily Mail in 2 days. How many innocent men are in prison for rapes they didn't commit ?

Was it dark when these two were picked up. They look like what they are, a pair of d****, though that's an insult to animals

They do both look older than their years, their bodies look old too, especially her on the right, they are evil too, they don't look friendly and actually look how they behave. What the guy did was wrong as well but to accuse him of rape was very evil.
