

Hinsdale woman, 19, lied about sex assault, police say

MAY 21, 2010

A 19-year-old Hinsdale woman who allegedly told police she was sexually assaulted was charged with disorderly conduct for filing a false police report, Hinsdale police said.

Ellie Merlin Homan went to the Hinsdale police station on May 9 and told police of the sexual assault. She was arrested on May 10 and later recanted her story, police said.
