

18th August 2016

Taxi driver found not guilty of raping widow at her Bradford flat

By Jenny Loweth

Bradford Crown Court

A 45-YEAR-OLD man has been cleared of raping a widow he met on Facebook.

Taxi driver, Mohammad Ranjah, was found not guilty by a jury at Bradford Crown Court of the alleged offence, said to have happened at the woman's flat in Bradford on September 30, 2014.

Ranjah, of Thrum Hall Drive, Halifax, brought the woman flowers after they messaged on Facebook.

He told the jury he was looking for a new girlfriend and she was delighted to meet him, hugging and kissing him.

Ranjah told the jury had consensual sex on her bed and he gave her money for cigarettes.

<https://www.thetelegraphandargus.co.uk/news/14690807.taxi-driver-found-not-guilty-of-raping-widow-at-her-bradford-flat/>