

Woman Jailed After Filing False Claim Of Sexual Assault

May 4, 2012 at 5:04 pm

WHEATON, Ill. (STMW) -- A west suburban woman who had consensual sex with a man, then later accused him of rape, has been charged with disorderly conduct for filing a false police report, according to police.

Sarah C. Eschbach, 22, of the 2700 block of Spinner Court in Naperville, turned herself in to Aurora police Thursday night after a felony warrant was issued for her arrest, a release from Aurora police said.

On March 26, Eschbach told police she had been sexually assaulted by a 21-year-old Aurora man she knew at his apartment, the release said. But a police investigation revealed the two engaged in consensual sex and no assault had taken place.

The DuPage County State's Attorney's office approved a charge of felony disorderly conduct for filing a false police report and the warrant was issued Tuesday.

Eschbach was being held in the DuPage County Jail on a $1,500 bond.

"Sexual assault is a brutal crime," Aurora police Cmdr. Paul Nelson said in a statement. "Police take these allegations seriously and investigate them thoroughly. If the allegations prove to be false, charges will be pursued."

<https://chicago.cbslocal.com/2012/05/04/woman-jailed-after-filing-false-claim-of-sexual-assault/>