A TEENAGER was charged with making a false rape claim.

Steven Bebbington, 18, was charged with wasting police time.

The teen, of Bath Street, Southport, was charged in relation to a rape allegation made to police last month.

A teenager allegedly said he was walking down West Street when he was attacked and raped by a man.

The assault was said to have taken place around 2am.

Bebbington is due to appear before justices at North Sefton magistrates court on Friday, October 30.
