

Coventry Telegraph

Police close inquiry into rape allegation

00:00, 19 MAR 2004

UPDATED 05:30, 26 APR 2013

BY COVENTRY TELEGRAPH

Detectives have closed an inquiry into a rape allegation made in Warwickshire on Wednesday.

Detectives have closed an inquiry into a rape allegation made in Warwickshire on Wednesday.

A car park at the back of the Cask and Bottle public house, in Union Street, Stratford, was cordoned off yesterday after an allegation was made shortly before midnight on Wednesday. The investigation has now ended.

A Warwickshire Police spokesman said: "We have investigated the circumstances surrounding the allegation and carried out a number of interviews.

"No offences were apparent and the police inquiry is now closed."

<http://www.coventrytelegraph.net/news/local-news/police-close-inquiry-rape-allegation-3149841>