

The Herald

24th September 1999

Rape lie woman freed

A WOMAN who cried rape and lied to police walked free from court yesterday. Lynn Wilson, 23, admitted at Falkirk Sheriff Court, falsely accusing bouncer Mark MacDonald of rape and wasting police time. She was ordered to carry out 150 hours' community service. Her lawyer said Wilson, of Bo'ness, West Lothian, made up the rape lie "due to depression".

<https://www.heraldscotland.com/news/12247103.rape-lie-woman-freed/>