

Orlando Sentinel

LOCAL

Lutz Woman Will Explain False Report Of Assault

June 14, 2000

COCOA -- A Hillsborough County woman who claimed she was kidnapped and sexually assaulted by a carjacker June 1 will have her day in court -- to explain why she made up the whole story, officials said. Robin Champion, 32, of Lutz, was served a summons Tuesday to appear in court on July 6 on charges of filing a false police report, a first-degree misdemeanor, said Brevard County sheriff's spokeswoman Joan Heller. Champion told investigators she made up the story so the man with whom she lives wouldn't find out she had spent the day "partying" with a stranger she met at a gas station, Heller said.

<http://articles.orlandosentinel.com/keyword/false-police-report/featured/5>