CHARLOTTE, NC (WBTV) - A teen girl high school student who claimed she was raped in a bathroom at West Mecklenburg High School actually filed a false report, according to Charlotte-Mecklenburg police.

According to the original police report, the incident happened on Feb. 10 between a 15-minute span starting at 11:24 a.m.

The victim originally told police there were two suspects involved in the incident – one held the 17-year-old girl down and pulled down her pants, while the other performed the sexual act, according to the police report.

"The victim stated she had to scream to get the suspects to leave her alone and they ran out of the bathroom," according to the original police report.

The victim then left the bathroom and told a nearby person about the incident, according to the first report.

The girl told police she suffered cuts and bruises during the incident.

On Monday, a CMPD spokesman said the the victim later claimed she had consensual sex with the suspect.

It's unclear if she has been charged with filing a false report.
