

Woman admits false rape allegations

Sep 25, 2014 Jan Gamm

A YOUNG woman aged 20 has been ordered by the court to pay a fine of 2,160€ at 6€ per day for a year after she confessed to inventing rape allegations against a group of men at an annual fairground event in Malaga. Furthermore, the lawyer representing the men, two of whom are just 17 years old, has said that action will be brought against the woman for making such allegations after she admitted the act was consensual. The Spanish government's anti-rape guidelines have been under fire from various women's groups for being at best complacent and at worse farcical as precautions against attack advise: 'drawing your curtains' and 'not getting into a lift with strangers'.
