

Oil City Teen Faces Charges of Filing False Report of Rape

Dave Cyphert | May 8, 2015

OIL CITY, Pa (EYT) – The Oil City Police Department say criminal charges are being filed on a 17 year old female for filing a false report of rape.

According to police, they were investigating a reported rape that allegedly occurred on May 4, 2015, but it was discovered that the alleged victim provided completely false information and that the rape did not occur.

The 17 year old female is facing the following charges in Venango County Court:

- Unsworn Falsification to Authorities, misdemeanor
  - False Reports to Law Enforcement, misdemeanor
- Further court action is pending.
