

Detector Reveals lie by Husband

NEW YORK, Thurs.— A young married man told police yesterday that he had tried to hoax them with a story of being "raped" by two girls. Virgil Sumininski, 26, father of a 17 months old son, had said he was attacked by two of three girls who gave him a lift while he was hitch hiking. But after undergoing a lie detector test at Toledo, Ohio, he said he made up the story to deceive his wife and to explain why he had been away from home all day.
